The Jurist-in-Residence Program brings distinguished jurists to the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa to meet with students, faculty, the judiciary and the bar in a unique education setting. The program, instituted in 1987, founded with the support of Myron H. Bright, Senior Circuit Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit, is always a highlight of the year, enabling our students and the community to exchange ideas with the country’s leading jurists.

OUR SINCERE THANKS to the Honolulu law firm of Case Lombardi & Pettit for its generous sponsorship of the Jurist-in-Residence Program since 2000.
