CERTIORARI TO THE INTERMEDIATE COURT OF APPEALS
(CAAP-14-0000387; CIV. NO. 13-1-0640)

SUMMARY DISPOSITION ORDER

(By: Recktenwald, C.J., Nakayama, McKenna, Pollack, and Wilson JJ.)

Petitioners/Plaintiffs-Appellants (Petitioners) seek review of the September 9, 2015 Order Granting in Part and Denying in Part Without Prejudice Motion for an Award of Attorneys' Fees and Costs, in which the Intermediate Court of Appeals (ICA) granted Petitioners' request for appellate costs and denied Petitioners' request for appellate attorney's fees "without prejudice to Plaintiffs-Appellants submitting a request for attorneys' fees to the Circuit Court of the Second Circuit (circuit court), including the fees incurred on this appeal, at the conclusion of this case in the circuit court."

On certiorari, Petitioners contend that the ICA erred in not awarding attorney's fees by failing to recognize that an arbitrability dispute is a separate action under Hawai'i Revised Statutes (HRS) § 607-14, and that in prevailing in the arbitrability dispute, Petitioners were entitled to attorneys' fees.

With respect to appellate attorneys' fees, we conclude that, for the purposes of HRS § 607-14, the appeal of the arbitrability issue is a separate action from the underlying dispute on the merits. We determine that Petitioners prevailed in the arbitrability action and are entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees under HRS § 607-14 and the fee-shifting provision in the Purchase Agreement. We award Petitioners $54,974.00 in attorneys' fees incurred on appeal before the ICA, to be taxed jointly and severally among Respondents/Defendants-Appellees.

With respect to Petitioners' request for an order stating that they are entitled to attorneys' fees and costs incurred in proceedings before the circuit court and in arbitration, we affirm the ICA's denial without prejudice to Petitioners' right to request fees and costs from the circuit court.

We also affirm the ICA's award of $474.60 in appellate costs.

Accordingly, we reverse the portion of the ICA's September 9, 2015 order denying Petitioners' request for appellate attorneys' fees, and affirm the portions of the ICA's September 9, 2015 order granting Petitioners' request for appellate costs and denying Petitioners' request for fees and costs incurred in the circuit court without prejudice to Petitioners' right to request fees and costs in the circuit court.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawai'i, September 18, 2017.
