(By: Recktenwald, C.J., Nakayama, McKenna, Pollack, and Wilson, JJ.)

Completion of t[~~F~~]he required Hawai'i Professionalism course is separate and distinct from other Mandatory Continuing [Professional]Legal Education (CLE) programs available through the Hawai'i State Bar or other legal ethics associations and is traditionally offered only bi-annually, in November and June. The Hawai'i State Bar shall notify attorneys facing administrative suspension pursuant to section (c) of this [r]Rule, 1 month prior to the final opportunity to complete the professionalism course, of the attorney's impending administrative suspension. Failure to notify an attorney shall not, however, constitute grounds upon which the attorney may contest the imposition of administrative suspension.

(f) CLE Compliance. Completion of the Professionalism Course awards 3 CLE credits for ethics that may be used to comply with the ethics CLE requirement imposed by Rule 22(b) of these Rules. Newly licensed members who are exempt from CLE requirements in the year of their admission, pursuant to Rule 22(j) of these Rules, may carry forward these 3 CLE credits for ethics, earned by completing the Professionalism Course, into the subsequent year in which they are required to complete CLE credits. See Rule 22(j) and Rule 22(c) of these Rules.

Rule 22. MANDATORY CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION.

(b) Ethics and Professional Responsibility Minimum. At least once every 3 years in which CLE credits are required, every active member shall complete 1 hour of approved ethics or professional responsibility education. This credit hour shall count toward the annual CLE requirement. "Ethics or professional responsibility education" means those courses or segments of courses devoted to:

- (1) the Rules of Professional Conduct;
- (2) the professional obligations of the lawyer to the client, the judicial system, the public and other lawyers;
- (3) substance abuse and its effects on lawyers and the practice of law; or
- (4) client trust administration, bias awareness and prevention, and access to justice.

(c) Carry Forward of Credit Hours. A member may carry forward from the previous reporting period a maximum of 3 excess CLE credit hours, including ethics credits. To be carried forward, the credit hours must have been earned during the calendar year immediately preceding the current reporting period.
