CONDITIONS OF USE

Cancellation. The Judiciary reserves the right to cancel a previously approved application due to unforeseen Judiciary business. Any usage charge deposited will be returned to the applicant. The applicant may also cancel a reservation. However, any usage charge deposited will be returned only if the reservation is canceled prior to the date of use.

Liability. The user shall exercise due care for the public safety, and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Judiciary, its officers, agents and employees from and against all claims and demands for damages including claims for property damage, bodily injuries or death arising from, growing out of or caused by any act or omission on the part of the user, its officers, agents, members, or employees in connection with the privilege of using Judiciary property. The user shall complete and submit Form 91-86-94, "Statement Indemnifying Judiciary Against Liability Claim" together with this application. The Judiciary may require the user to obtain general liability insurance.

Fixtures, burning and noise. No sign, poster, fixture, or object of any kind shall be attached to any part of Judiciary property, unless prior approval has been received from the Judiciary. No burning of any kind shall be permitted, and no alcohol shall be served or consumed on the premises. Noise shall be kept to a minimum, and use shall cease if the noise is determined by the Judiciary to be excessive.

Equipment and personnel. The user shall provide all necessary equipment and personnel. The Judiciary is not obligated in any way to provide either equipment or services.

Moving of property prohibited. No Judiciary fixture, equipment, or furnishing of any kind shall be moved or removed for any reason, except that tables and chairs may be arranged to suit the occasion but it is the responsibility of the user to replace these items to their original positions.

Precautions. The user agrees to take necessary action and other precautions to prevent damage to Judiciary property and to ensure the safety of persons using Judiciary property.

Security services. Security personnel are required unless specifically waived by the Judiciary. Deputy sheriffs of the Department of Public Safety shall be used unless the Judiciary determines that police officers are required. The user shall be responsible to arrange for security services and shall provide the Judiciary with the names of the security officers at least two (2) business days prior to use of the facility. Additionally, the user shall be responsible to make payment for security services in accordance with the policies of the Office of the Sheriff or Police Department, as applicable. The Judiciary shall not be responsible for any aspect of the payment process or payment for security services.

Damages and clean-up. The user shall assume responsibility for any physical damage caused by or connected with the use of Judiciary property. All areas shall be left clean and all litter created by the user shall be collected and placed in trash containers. In the event of damage or uncleanliness, the Judiciary will bill the user for the cost of correction or deficiencies.

Form of payment. Payments shall be by cash, money order, certified check, or cashier's check. Payments to the Judiciary shall be made payable to the Director of Finance, State of Hawaii and payments for security services shall be made in accordance with the procedures of the security services provider.

Insurance. Judiciary requires insurance for the use of State facilities and grounds in the following minimum insurance requirements:

1. All users shall have general liability of no less than $500,000 per occurrence and $1 million in the aggregate.
2. Users selling food items shall maintain products and completed operations coverage of no less than $500,000 per occurrence and $1 million in the aggregate.
3. Organizations operating motor vehicles shall maintain automobile liability of no less than $500,000 per occurrence and $1 million in the aggregate.
4. The Judiciary, State of Hawai'i, is to be named as additional insured.
5. Certificates of Insurance shall be provided to the Judiciary.
6. Liability waivers and indemnification agreements are required from all users.

State of Hawai'i Departments and/or agencies share the same insurances as Judiciary. Therefore, a Certificate of Insurance is not required. State of Hawai'i, City and County Departments and/or agencies may provide a self insured letter to fulfill the insurance requirements.
