(Amended February 8, 1996, effective April 1, 1996.)

Rule 1.1. INTERPRETATION; EFFECTS OF E-FILING AND AUTOMATION.

(a) Interpretation and enforcement of rules.

These rules shall be read and construed with reference to each other, the Hawai'i Electronic Filing and Service Rules, and the Hawai'i Court Records Rules. In any conflict amongst the Rules of the District Court of the State of Hawai'i, the Hawai'i Court Records Rules, and the Hawai'i Electronic Filing and Services Rules, the Hawai'i Electronic Filing and Service Rules shall prevail.

(b) Effect of Hawai'i Electronic Filing and Service Rules. Documents filed and notices given in accordance with the Hawai'i Electronic Filing and Service Rules shall be deemed to comply with any filing or notice requirements of any part of these Rules of the District Courts of the State of Hawai'i.

Notwithstanding any language in these Rules of the District Courts of the State of Hawai'i requiring the filing or service of additional paper copies of documents, such copies are not required for documents filed through the Judiciary Electronic Filing System (JEFS).

(c) Effects of automation on processes and procedures. Duties set out in these rules may be performed by automation.

(d) Conflicts with other rules of court. To the extent there is conflict between these rules and the District Court Rules of Civil Procedure, the Rules of the Small Claims Division of the District Court, or the Hawai'i Rules of Penal Procedure, the latter shall prevail.

(e) Definitions. See Rule 1 of the Hawai'i Electronic Filing and Service Rules for definitions.

(Added April 23, 2012, effective June 18, 2012; further amended May 2, 2012, effective June 18, 2012.)

Rule 2. FILING PROCEDURE BY THE CLERK.

(a) Case number. Upon the filing of the initial pleading or other documents, and before the issuance of process, the clerk shall assign a number to such proceeding. All subsequent pleadings and documents to be filed shall bear the number assigned to the initial documents, which shall appear on the first page.

(b) Stamp by clerk. For conventionally filed documents, the clerk shall promptly stamp the time and date upon all documents filed.

(c) Docket entry and filing. Upon the filing of any document, an appropriate entry shall be made in a docket sheet kept for each case. A "docket sheet" may be an electronic record within a court maintained computer.

(d) Service of pleadings and other documents.

(1) FILING: ORIGINAL KEPT ON FILE; COPIES FOR SERVICE. For conventionally filed documents and subject to subsection (2) of this subsection (d) pertaining to questions and other discovery documents, when a pleading or other document requiring service is presented for filing, the original shall be accompanied with a sufficient number of copies for service. The original shall be kept on file by the clerk. For conventionally filed documents and those parties not registered with the JEFS, service may be made with the certified copy or copies of the documents together with the certified copy or copies of the summons, and the serving officer shall make proof of service to the court promptly by returning the original summons to the clerk.

(2) SERVICE AND FILING OF QUESTIONS AND OTHER DISCOVERY DOCUMENTS. Unless otherwise provided by the Hawai'i Electronic Filing and Service Rules, the filing of questions and other discovery documents shall be governed by Rule 5 of the District Court Rules of Civil Procedure. (e) Signatures. Any order or judgment that is filed electronically bearing a facsimile signature in lieu of an original signature of a judge or clerk has the same force and effect as if the judge or clerk had affixed the judge's or clerk's signature to a paper copy of the order or judgment and it had been entered on the docket in a conventional manner. For purposes of this rule and any rules of court, the facsimile signature may be either an image of a handwritten signature or the software printed name of the judge preceded by /s/.

(f) Place of filing; assignment to division.

Except as provided by the Hawai'i Electronic Filing and Service Rules, pleadings and documents for filing shall be presented to the office of the clerk. The clerk shall furnish certified copies of all documents filed if so requested at the time of filing. The administrative judge may designate the division to which a case or class of cases may be assigned.

(g) Electronic filing of documents submitted on paper; filing date and time preserved. Pursuant to Rule 2.5 of the Hawai'i Electronic Filing and Service Rules, the clerk shall electronically file any paper document submitted to the clerk. The receipt date and time reflected on the conventionally filed document and subsequently filed in JIMS shall be deemed the filing date for all purposes under any of the Hawai'i Rules of Court. Once electronically filed, the clerk shall not retain the paper document.

(b) Stipulations extending time. Stipulations for the approval of the court extending time to act under Rule 6(b)(1), District Court Rules of Civil Procedure, and Rule 45(b), Hawai'i Rules of Penal Procedure, shall recite the time of expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order.

(Amended February 8, 1996, effective April 1, 1996.)

Rule 20. RESERVED.*Rule 21. SUBMISSION OF PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

(a) Proposed findings and conclusions. The party who prevails after the presentation of evidence shall upon request submit to the court proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52, District Court Rules of Civil Procedure. The party required to prepare such proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law shall have 10 days, unless such time is extended by the court, to draft the same and secure the approval as to form of opposing counsel thereon. If the form of the proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law has not been approved, a party served with the proposed findings and conclusions may within 5 days thereafter serve and deliver to the court objections and a copy of the objecting party's proposed findings and conclusions. The court shall determine the findings of fact and conclusions of law to be entered.

If after the conclusion of all testimony, the court does not indicate which party has prevailed in the action, the respective parties involved may be requested to submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(b) Cases maintained as paper records. The prevailing party shall deliver the original and 1 copy to the court, or, if not so approved, serve a copy thereof upon each party who has appeared in the action and deliver the original and 1 copy to the court.

(c) Cases maintained in the Judiciary Information Management System (JIMS). Proposed findings and conclusions shall be submitted in accordance with Rule 9 of the Hawai'i Electronic Filing and Service Rules.

(Amended February 8, 1996, effective April 1, 1996; further amended April 23, 2012, effective June 18, 2012; further amended May 2, 2012, effective June 18, 2012.)

Rule 22. REQUEST FOR DRAFT OF DECISION ON ISSUE OF LAW.

Whenever the court proposes to file a written decision on any motion or issue of law, it may at any time request one or more of the parties to submit a draft of decision. In such event, the court shall advise all parties of its action, and the draft so submitted shall be served, and an opportunity shall be given to opposing counsel to present comments with respect thereto. The failure of any party to submit comments with respect to any such draft shall not affect the right of such party to appeal from any judgment incorporated in or based on the decision as issued.

Rule 23. SETTLEMENT OF JUDGMENTS AND ORDERS.

Within 10 days after decision of the court awarding any judgment or order that requires settlement and approval by the court, the prevailing party, unless otherwise ordered by the court, shall prepare a judgment or order in accordance with the decision, attempt to secure the approval as to form of opposing parties thereon, and following such approval file it with the court electronically or, if the case is not within the JIMS, deliver an original paper document and 1 copy to the court. If there is no objection to the form of a proposed judgment, or order, the party shall promptly approve as to form. In the event a proposed judgment or order is not approved as to form by an opposing party within 5 days of a written request for such approval, the prevailing party shall file electronically, pursuant to the Hawai'i Electronic Filing and Service Rules or, if exempt, shall deliver the original and 1 copy to the court along with notice of service on all parties and serve a copy thereof upon each party who has appeared in the action. If any party objects to a proposed judgment or order, the objecting party shall within 5 days thereafter, serve upon the prevailing party and deliver to the court a statement of the party's objections and the reasons therefor, and the party's proposed judgment or order; and in such event, the court shall proceed to settle the judgment or order. Failure to file and serve objections and a proposed judgment or order shall constitute approval as to form of the prevailing party's proposed judgment or order.

When a party objects to the proposed findings of fact, the objecting party must file proposed alternate findings of fact with the statement of objections.

(Amended February 8, 1996, effective April 1, 1996; further amended July 29, 1997, effective September 1, 1997; further amended April 23, 2012, effective June 18, 2012.)

The direction shall be in writing, signed by the court and filed, and a copy served upon opposing counsel and the reporter. It shall provide that the person so ordering such transcript shall within 5 days following the date of the filing of such direction, deposit with the official reporter, the amount of the estimated cost of the fees for the transcript, as provided by statute. (a) Preservation of testimony. Whenever a court reporter is not in attendance, the court shall order that the testimony and other matters required to be preserved by a reporter shall be preserved on tape or by such other device as may be appropriate. It is the responsibility of the court to see to it that the record so made is sufficiently clear to permit full transcription and truly discloses what occurred in the court, and that a log is kept with such particularity, and with such references to the record made on tape or by other device, as will enable the record to be reviewed and transcribed as occasion arises.

(b) Effect of certain terms; obtaining transcript. Whenever in Rule 25 or other rules of court, or in the provisions of Hawai'i Revised Statutes, Section 606-13 relating to transcripts, reference is made to the report of the evidence or proceedings at a hearing or trial, or to the court reporter or official reporter, these terms and words of like import shall, if no court reporter was in attendance and the record has been preserved on tape or by other device, be deemed to refer to the record so preserved and to the chief clerk of the court except as otherwise provided. Upon the application of any person for preparation of a transcript of a record so preserved, the court shall direct the chief clerk to cause the transcript to be furnished in the regular order of cases so recorded or in such order as the court directs. Transcript fees shall be deposited as in other cases, and the chief clerk shall not be required to complete arrangements for transcribing the record until the required deposit is made.

(c) Preparation of transcript. A transcript in a case recorded as provided by this rule shall be prepared by a competent person approved by the court. Unless the court otherwise directs (1) the transcript shall be certified by the transcriber who, for this purpose, shall have the powers of a clerk of the court, and (2) the transcript fees shall be paid to the transcriber upon completion of the work.

Rule 26. ATTORNEY'S LIABILITY FOR COSTS: DISQUALIFICATION OF SURETIES.

(a) Liability for court costs. Attorneys shall be liable to the court for court costs incurred by their clients.

(b) Who may not be surety. No attorney or other officer or employee of the court shall become surety on any bond or undertaking in any action or proceeding in this court, unless authorized by the court.

Rule 28. DISMISSAL FOR WANT OF SERVICE.

A diligent effort to effect service shall be made in all actions. An action or claim may be dismissed sua sponte with written notice to the plaintiff if no service is made within 12 months after the action or claim has been filed. Such dismissal may be set aside and the action or claim reinstated by order of the court for good cause shown upon motion duly filed not later than 10 days from the date of the order of dismissal.

(Amended February 8, 1996, effective April 1, 1996; further amended November 27, 2007, effective January 1, 2008; further amended November 1, 2010, effective January 1, 2011.)

Rule 29. DISMISSAL FOR WANT OF PROSECUTION IN DEFAULT CASES.

Such dismissal may be set aside and the action reinstated by order of the court for good cause shown upon motion duly filed not later than 10 days from the date of the order of dismissal.

(Amended November 27, 2007, effective January 1, 2008.)

Rule 30. QUESTIONS AND ADMISSIONS.

(a) Objection by party. The party objecting to a question shall serve an answer thereto within 10 days after receiving notice of the court's order overruling the objection, unless otherwise ordered by the court. Answers or objections to questions pursuant to Rule 33 of the District Court Rules of Civil Procedure shall identify and quote each question in full immediately preceding the statement of any answer or objection thereto. Motions to compel answers to specific questions shall also identify and quote each question or response in full or attach a copy thereof. Responses and objections to requests for admissions pursuant to Rule 36 of the District Court Rules of Civil Procedure shall identify and quote each request for admissions in full immediately preceding the statement of any answer or objection thereto.

(b) Form. Questions and requests for admissions served pursuant to Rule 33 and Rule 36, District Court Rules of Civil Procedure, shall provide reasonably sufficient space for the answer after each question or request. Two sets of the questions or requests for admissions shall be served upon the adverse party. Those questions shall not exceed 60 in number, counting any sub-parts or sub-questions as individual questions, without prior leave of court.

(Amended March 16, 1984, partly effective March 16, 1984, fully effective May 1, 1984; further amended, February 8, 1996, effective April 1, 1996; further amended December 6, 1996, effective December 6, 1996.)

(3) Service of the petition and order to show cause and any other process or order shall be made as provided by the District Court Rules of Civil Procedure;

(4) A return to the petition shall be made within the time ordered by the court, and if it presents an issue of fact, shall be supported by oath;

(5) The court may designate and order that any one or more of the District Court Rules of Civil Procedure shall be applicable in such case.

(Amended February 8, 1996, effective April 1, 1996.)

Rule 32. RESERVED.*Rule 33. PROCEDURES IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE FIRST CIRCUIT FOR CRIMINAL AND TRAFFIC CASES.

This rule shall apply to criminal and traffic cases in the district court of the first circuit.

(a) Request for discovery; motion to compel discovery.

(1) If discovery is sought of the kinds of materials that would be discoverable in circuit court felony cases as of right pursuant to Rules 16(b) and 16(c) of the Hawai'i Rules of Penal Procedure, a request for informal discovery shall be made directly to the opposing side within 21 days after the defendant's plea of not guilty, provided that the court for cause shown may extend the time for filing a request in a given case, and further provided that the administrative judge may by general order direct that in all criminal and traffic cases, or in specified types of cases, requests for discovery may be made within a given number of days exceeding 21 days after plea. A request for discovery shall be in writing, shall cite the authority for the discovery and shall list the specific materials being sought. Unless otherwise ordered, the request shall not be filed with the court.

(2) If a timely request for discovery is unsuccessful, a motion to compel discovery may be filed, showing materiality and reasonableness of the requested discovery pursuant to Rule 16(d) of the Hawai'i Rules of Penal Procedure and seeking pursuant to that rule a discretionary order compelling discovery. Unless otherwise ordered for good cause shown, a motion to compel discovery shall establish that a previous timely request for discovery was made. The motion shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (b) of this rule.

(b) Pretrial motions governed by Rule 12 of the Hawai'i Rules of Penal Procedure; time for filing.

(1) Pretrial motions in the nature of those motions enumerated in Rule 12(b) of the Hawai'i Rules of Penal Procedure, such as but not limited to motions to compel discovery and motions to suppress, but not including motions in limine made at the date and time of trial of the matter, shall be made in writing and filed with the clerk of court, unless made orally with the permission of the court during another pretrial hearing in the case. In applying Rule 12(c) of the Hawai'i Rules of Penal Procedure, which requires that pretrial motions shall be made within 21 days after arraignment unless otherwise directed by the court, the administrative judge may by general order direct that in all criminal and traffic cases, or in specified types of cases, pretrial motions may be made within a given number of days exceeding 21 days after the plea of not guilty.

(2) Pursuant to Rule 12(f) of the Hawai'i Rules of Penal Procedure, failure by a party to make a pretrial motion within the time specified in Rule 12(c) of the Hawai'i Rules of Penal Procedure, or within any additional time specified by general order of the administrative judge, or within an extension granted by the court in a specific case, shall constitute a waiver of any defenses, objections or requests required to be raised prior to trial, but the court for cause shown may grant relief from the waiver.

(c) Form and contents of pretrial motions and motions for continuance; service. All pretrial motions and motions for continuance lacking the concurrence and approval of opposing parties or their counsel shall be in writing and supported by affidavit, with a notice of hearing attached. Such motions shall be served on opposing counsel not less than 72 hours before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different time is fixed by order of the court. Such an order may for cause be made on ex-parte application. Any affidavits in support of the motion shall be served with the motion; and an opposing affidavit may be served not less than 24 hours preceding the hearing, unless the court permits service at some other time.

(d) Stipulated continuances of trial date. The administrative judge may by general order direct that stipulated motions for continuance filed up to a specified number of days prior to trial shall be deemed approved without the express approval or signature of the court. Stipulated motions for continuance filed after the date specified in any such general order shall be effective only if expressly approved by the court. Any stipulation for continuance shall comply with Rule 19(b) of these rules by specifying the currently scheduled trial date and by reciting the dates of any previous continuances.
