Temporary Rules for Implementation of the Conversion Proceeding Established by Act 48 § 5 of the 2011 Hawai'i Session Laws

Rule 1. Commencement of Action

An action to convert a non-judicial foreclosure to a judicial foreclosure action shall be initiated by filing, in the circuit court of the circuit in which the property subject to foreclosure is located, a certified conversion petition. The certified conversion petition shall be in a form that substantially conforms to Form A appended to these temporary rules.

The petition shall name as respondents the foreclosing party and any parties with an interest in the subject property or obligations on the secured loans, including co-signers and guarantors, who are not petitioners.

Rule 2. Fees

Upon the filing of the certified conversion petition the clerk shall collect a filing fee of $300.

Rule 3. Service

Petitioner shall, in addition to any notice and service requirements set out in Act 48 § 5 (2011), serve the petition in accordance with the service requirements of Rule 5 of the Hawai'i Rules of Civil Procedure. Summons pursuant to Rule 4 of the Hawai'i Rules of Civil Procedure is not required. Petitioner shall file proof of service in the record.

Rule 4. Answer

No later than 30 days after service of the petition, any respondent who contests allegations of the petition shall file a response specifically contesting or admitting each allegation of the petition. Failure to file a timely response shall be deemed an admission of each factual allegation in the petition.

Rule 5. Submission

Any party with an interest in the subject property or obligations on the secured loans, including co-signers and guarantors, who is not a petitioner may submit a submission to the judicial process and jurisdiction of the circuit court. The submission shall be filed no later than 45 days after the petition was filed on a form that substantially complies with Form B appended to these temporary rules.

Rule 6. Computation of Time; No enlargement.

Time shall be computed in accordance with Rule 6 of the Hawai‘i Rules of Civil Procedure, except that no enlargements of time are allowed.

Rule 7. Hearing.

Upon receipt of responses to the petition or expiration of the time in which responses could be filed, the circuit court shall determine whether a hearing is to be had. If the circuit court concludes a hearing is to be had, the court shall schedule the hearing to be held no later than 30 days after the response was filed and shall so notify the parties.

Rule 8. Limited Purpose.

These temporary rules are intended to provide a speedy determination of the conversion petition and are not intended to litigate any other claim for relief. Except as specifically provided in these temporary rules, the Hawai‘i Rules of Civil Procedure do not apply to the conversion proceeding.

Rule 9. Judgment

No later than 10 days after a hearing or the date a hearing could have been had, the circuit court shall enter its judgment granting or denying the petition. Judgment on the petition shall be on a form that substantially conforms to Form C attached to these rules and may include only

(1) denial of the petition, a statement the non-judicial foreclosure may proceed, and dismissal of any other claims; or

(2) grant of the petition, conversion of the non-judicial foreclosure to a judicial foreclosure, instruction to the Respondent foreclosing party to file an action for foreclosure within thirty days, and dismissal of any other claims.
