

Motion and Affidavit for Post-Decree Relief

General Instructions

The Motion and Affidavit for Post-Decree Relief, and the appropriate attachments, are used to request every type of available relief in a case where a Divorce Decree or Judgment of Paternity has already entered. More than one such motion can be filed in the Post-Decree period.

Motion and Affidavit for Post-Decree Relief

All the relief sought, and the reasons why it is sought, must be clearly stated in the Motion for Post-Decree Relief.

Caption The caption on the first page of the motion must conform to the caption in all of the other pleadings in the case. Provide all of the information required in the top half of the upper right hand box on the first page of the motion. Check the appropriate boxes to show all of the attachments which accompany the motion.

A. Modification

1. If orders are sought changing legal custody, physical custody and/or visitation, request them in paragraph 1. State with particularity why the change sought is best for the involved child/ren.
If modification of custody and/or visitation is requested, a completed Custody/Visitation Statement and the Movant's Income and Expense and Asset and Debt Statements dated current within sixty (60) days must be attached.
2. If a change in an existing alimony order is sought, or if the establishment of alimony where alimony has been reserved is sought, request it in paragraph 2.
If modification of alimony is requested, Movant's Income and Expense and Asset and Debt Statements dated current within sixty (60) days must be attached.
3. If a change in child support is sought, state what specific change is requested in paragraph 3. State with particularity how the circumstances of the parties and/or the subject child/ren have changed materially since the last child support order entered.
If child support modification is requested, the movant's Income and Expense and Asset and Debt Statements dated current within sixty (60) days must be attached. If the Respondent's financial circumstances are known, a Child Support Guidelines Worksheet should be attached.
4. If changes in other modifiable orders are sought, request them in paragraph 4. State with particularity the reason for the change.

B. Enforcement

1. If enforcement of child support and child support arrearages is sought, complete paragraph 1.
2. If enforcement of alimony and arrearages is sought, complete paragraph 2.
3. If enforcement of an obligation to make other payments is sought, complete paragraph 3.
4. If enforcement of other obligations is sought, complete paragraph 4.
5. Relief Check the appropriate box (a)-(h) to specify the particular type(s) of enforcement relief sought.

Note: For remedies (c) through (h) below you must:

1. Be familiar with the statute or rule which permits such relief.
2. Have complied with the statutes or rules including service of appropriate notices and summons.
3. Prepare any specialized orders necessary if the relief requested is granted.

C. Other Relief Sought

1. If contribution to the Movant’s legal expenses is sought, check the box next to numbered paragraph 1.
2. If an order requiring mediation is sought, check the box next to numbered paragraph 2.
3. If an order for a social study by the Family Court on custody and/or visitation disputes involving the subject child/ren is sought, check the box next to numbered paragraph 3.
4. Any other relief which has not been specifically requested in the preceding paragraph of the motion should be requested in paragraph 4. Examples include an order appointing a special guardian ad litem, an order referring designated financial issues to a special Family Court-appointed master, etc. Depending on the special and/or limited nature of the particular other relief sought, a separate motion may be presented at the option of the Movant.

Signature and Acknowledgment The Movant must sign the motion in the presence of a notary.

Scheduling Order for Post-Decree Relief

The Scheduling Order for Post-Decree Relief directs the Respondent to respond to the Motion for Post-Decree Relief and, depending on the contents of the motion, includes other orders. It is competed in part by the Movant, and in part by Family Court, as follows:

1. Order to Appear If a conference or a short trial has not been requested, check the box next to numbered paragraph 1. Do not fill in the blank; the Family Court will.
2. Documents to be Produced Check the box next to numbered paragraph 2 to require the Respondent to produce financial information, but only if paragraphs A.1., A.2., and/or A.3. in the motion are checked and completed.
3. Signing of the Order A Family Court Clerk will sign the Scheduling Order for Post-Decree Relief.

SERVICE You must properly give (“serve”) the other party a certified copy of the documents.

If Respondent is in the State: Someone (other than you) 18 years or older must hand-deliver the Motion + attachments to the Respondent(s). Either hire a civil process agent or get a friend or relative to serve him/her. The civil process agent or person serving must fill out and sign the Proof of Service document, which tells the court the Respondent was served. If you hire a process server, give the process server 1 blank copy of the Proof of Service document to complete. If you don’t hire a process server, the person serving must complete a Proof of Service document. File the original with the filing clerks.

Proof of Service If the Respondent is to be served on the island of Maui by an authorized civil process agent or someone over the age of 18 that is not a party to the case, complete the Proof of Service. The caption must conform to the caption in all other pleadings in the case. Provide all of the information required in the upper right hand box. Check the appropriate box under the heading “Documents Served” to show what documents will be served. The civil process agent or person serving will complete the “Date,” “Time,” and “Place” sections of the Proof of Service once service has been made or, despite due and diligent search, service cannot be made. If possible, have the server obtain the Respondent’s signature somewhere on the Proof of Service.

If Respondent is on the mainland, or in another country: You need permission from the Judge to serve by mail (Motion for Service by Mail and Affidavit; Order for Service by Mail). Once you get permission, send the Motion + attachments, along with a file-stamped copy of the Motion and Motion to the Respondent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, restricted delivery to the addressee only. Keep the receipt from the Post Office and wait for the return receipt card to come back, signed by the Respondent, indicating that the Respondent received the documents. Complete the Statement of Mailing and tape both Post Office receipts to the second page, then file it with the filing clerks.
