JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE PROGRAM 2017 REPORT

INTRODUCTION

The Judicial Performance Program 2017 Report summarizes the results of evaluations involving five Appellate Court justices and judges, seven Circuit Court judges, and nine Family Court judges. The attorney evaluations were conducted over the Internet.

To ensure the security, anonymity, and confidentiality of the evaluation process, it was administered by Hawai'i Information Consortium. Hawai'i Information Consortium maintains and manages the eHawaii.gov web portal. It is a company that is completely independent of the Judiciary.

The Judicial Performance Program was created by Supreme Court Rule 19 as a method of promoting judicial competence and excellence. The members of the Judicial Performance Committee are listed in Appendix A.

JUSTICES' AND JUDGES' RATINGS

Appellate justices and judges are rated on Fairness/Impartiality, Written Opinions, Oral Argument, and Overall Evaluation. Trial court judges are rated on Legal Ability, Judicial Management Skills, Comportment, and Settlement and/or Plea Agreement Ability. All yearly reports on the Judicial Performance Program are available to the public. Scores and comments received for individual justices and judges are available to the Judicial Selection Commission, upon its request.

Pictographs displaying frequency distributions of the justices' and judges' ratings are included in this evaluation report. Comparative rankings are provided in each area of assessment.

EVALUATION CYCLES

Appellate justices and judges and Circuit Court judges are scheduled for evaluation three times in their ten-year terms. Full time District Family Court judges and District Court judges are scheduled for evaluation twice in their six-year terms. For purposes of this program, Circuit Court judges assigned to the Family Court of the First Circuit are considered Family Court judges but are evaluated three times during their ten-year terms. A portion of the Per Diem judge pool is scheduled for evaluation every three years.

The full time Family Court and District Court evaluations are phased to result in these programs being included in the evaluation process two out of every three years. About one-half or approximately ten judges from each group are evaluated per cycle. Evaluation of District Court, but not of Family Court, judges was conducted in 2016. Evaluation of Family Court, but not of District Court, judges was conducted in 2017. Evaluations of both full time Family Court and full time District Court judges are scheduled for 2018.

JUDICIAL EVALUATION REVIEW PANEL

The Judicial Evaluation Review Panel assists Chief Justice Mark E. Recktenwald in the review and evaluation process. The Review Panel interviews the justices and judges and consists of nine members: Robert Alm, Momi Cazimero, Kenneth Hipp, Douglas McNish, Willson Moore Jr., Shackley Raffetto, William Santos, Corinne Watanabe, and Ruthann Yamanaka. The Review Panels are organized into groups of three; every effort is made for each panel to consist of one former judge, one nonpracticing attorney, and one member of the public knowledgeable in the law. Their purpose is to interview and counsel the evaluated justices and judges and to help the justices and judges improve their performance.

APPELLATE COURT RESULTS

Five Supreme Court justices and Intermediate Court of Appeals judges received the results of their evaluations under cover of memoranda dated March 22, 2017. Five other justices and judges did not have the minimum eighteen responses needed to be evaluated.

A link to the online questionnaire was provided to attorneys by email on February 14, 2017, and the surveys were collected from February 14 to March 10, 2017. The questionnaire is attached as Appendix B.

Possible scores for the multiple-choice format range from one to five. One indicates a Never or Poor rating. Five stands for Always or Excellent. Table 1 provides the averages for the five Appellate Court justices and judges.

The mean score for the Fairness/Impartiality Section was 4.3, with a standard deviation of 0.4. The standard deviation gives an indication of the variation in the scores of the justices and judges. (A small standard deviation means that scores generally were clustered about the mean; a large standard deviation means that there was less clustering of the scores.) Most of the Appellate Court justices and judges received marks between 3.9 and 4.7 in the Fairness/Impartiality section.

For Written Opinions, the justices and judges had a mean score of 4.1. The standard deviation for this section was 0.5. The mean score for the Oral Argument Section was 4.3, with a standard deviation of 0.4. The mean score for the Overall Evaluation Section was 3.9, with a standard deviation of 0.6. The frequencies of the Appellate Court justices' and judges' ratings, by category, are shown in Graphs 1 to 4.

There were 181 responses from 5,161 emails sent out to attorneys. This includes responses for the justices and judges who had fewer than eighteen questionnaires. Some of the 181 attorneys said that they had not appeared before any justices or judges. Other attorneys sent in responses with evaluations for more than one justice or judge. The number of questionnaires received for the five justices and judges totaled 147, with between 21 and 40 questionnaires per justice or judge.

Judges are receptive to receiving your comments, suggestions, and feedback. Your evaluations serve to enhance judicial performance and improve the judicial skills and techniques of Hawai'i's judges.

Please click on the Begin Evaluation button below to commence your judicial evaluations. The link is unique to your email address, so please do not forward this email. You may exit and later return to the evaluations simply by clicking this button. The judicial evaluations will remain accessible to you until July 14, 2017.

To ensure security and confidentiality, the evaluation process is conducted by SurveyMonkey. It is administered by the eHawaii.gov web portal, which is independent of the Judiciary. Only composite results are transmitted to the Judiciary. Please reference http://www.courts.state.hi.us/courts/performance_review/judge_evaluations_faqs for a list of Frequently Asked Questions. REMINDER EMAIL TO ATTORNEYS

Bcc:

From: Michael.A.Oki@courts.hawaii.gov

Date: April 18, 2017

Subject: Circuit Court Judicial Evaluation

Dear Attorney:

The Judiciary recently sent you an email regarding the evaluation of Circuit Court Judges. We are asking you to fill out a form if you had any cases or served in any other capacity with one or more of the judges identified in the evaluation.

If you did not receive the Circuit Court email or if you would like to receive it again, please reply to this email. If you are not in a position to evaluate a judge but another attorney in your office is, please ask that attorney to contact me. Please do not forward your evaluation email because the link is unique for each attorney.

The Judicial Performance Program is an important part of our ongoing effort to improve the judicial system. Because of the statistical requirements of the process, we cannot evaluate any judge who does not receive at least eighteen questionnaires during the rating period.

Thank you for your assistance. We appreciate your participation if you did complete the evaluation.

Michael Oki The Judiciary State of Hawai'i
