

JUDICIARY, STATE OF HAWAI'I
STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

Please answer all questions as completely and accurately as possible. Use additional sheets, if necessary. A Statement of Qualifications may be denied consideration on the basis of incomplete and/or inaccurate answers. A law office or firm shall submit a Statement of Qualifications for EACH attorney who will be providing services on behalf of the Judiciary.

1. Name and Contact Information

Last name, first name, middle initial

Other names used

Business Address

Business Telephone No.

Fax No.

Business email address

2. Employment history from date of admission to the Hawaii State Bar or 1994 (whichever is later), to the present. Include names and addresses of places worked and dates of employment.

3. Legal education. Include name and address of law school and dates attended.

4. Jurisdictions admitted to practice law. Include jurisdictions and dates of admission.

5. Has disciplinary action ever been taken against your license to practice law in the State of Hawai‘i, or any other jurisdiction in which you are licensed to practice law? If you answer “Yes,” provide a complete explanation of the complaint, findings, disciplinary action, and status.

6. Prior experience. (a) Using your best estimate, state the total number of cases in which you have represented the employer in a workers’ compensation case. (b) Out of that total, state the number of cases in which you represented a government entity. (c) State the number of workers’ compensation cases you handled on appeal to the appellate courts.

- (a) _____
- (b) _____
- (c) _____

7. References. From the cases included in the response to No. 6 above, identify persons who can serve as references regarding the legal services you provided.

8. Briefly summarize the most difficult case in which you have provided representation for an employer in a workers’ compensation case. Include information on why the case was difficult, what you did to handle the difficulty, and the outcome of the case.

9. Fees. List all hourly fees and other fees charged for services provided, including in-court and out-of-court fees, fees charged by partners, associates, and paralegals, etc.

10. Costs. List all costs typically charged for providing representation on behalf of the employer in a workers' compensation case.

11. Conflicts of Interest. Are you currently representing, or have you in past represented, a party whose interest is/was adverse to the Judiciary, State of Hawai'i? If you answer "yes," identify the adverse matter and state the nature of your involvement.

CERTIFICATION BY APPLICANT:

I hereby certify that all statements in this application, including attachments, are true and correct to the best of my knowledge as of the date of this statement.

Signature of Applicant

Date