<sup>1</sup> See, page 4 of Order Regarding Judiciary Operations, filed April 27, 2020, SCFM-20-00000152 explaining Access to Judiciary Facilities, that, "[N]o one shall enter Judiciary facilities if they have:

- A fever, cough, or other respiratory symptoms;
- Traveled in the past 14 days; or
- Have had close prolonged contact with a person with a person who has or is suspected to have COVID-19.

0000152 regarding the coronavirus (COVID-19) and ordering increased use of remote proceedings<sup>2</sup>; and with the authority as Chief Judge<sup>3</sup> of the above-entitled Court,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The Emergency Order No. 3 Regarding Family Court of the Second Circuit, State of Hawai`i filed March 17, 2020 and the Order Implementing E-Mail Submissions to the Family Court of the Second Circuit filed April 13, 2020, are hereby extended through May 29, 2020, except as modified herein.
2. Chief Justice Recktenwald's April 9, 2020 Order, in SCMF-20-0000152 authorizes documents in Family Courts may be filed via email, through April 30, 2020, since the family courts are not yet part of the Judiciary's electronic filing system.<sup>4</sup>
3. The Second Judicial Circuit, Family Court will eventually phase out the temporary email address for filing as a JEFS (Judiciary Electronic Filing and Service System) and JIMS (Judiciary Information Management System) Document Drop Off has been created for use by Family Court filers/users: attorneys and pro se litigants. Hawai`i Judiciary's JEFS/JIMS Team was able to create an additional service on JEFS for Second Circuit

Additionally, anyone entering a Judiciary facility shall comply with social distancing requirements consistent with the Governor's Sixth Supplementary Proclamation, including wearing a face covering as described and recommended by the Center for Disease Control and Prevention."

<sup>4</sup>See, Order, filed April 09, 2020, SCMF-20-0000152; at paragraph 1; paragraph 2 also explains the Family Court of each circuit shall provide an email address for such filings; and paragraph 5 states, the Family Court in each circuit shall establish the procedures necessary to implement this order in their respective circuits.; See also, Order Implementing E-Mail Submissions To the Family Court of the Second Circuit, 2CSCP-20-000015, ordering that an email address to be utilized when submitting documents for filing in the Second Judicial Circuit, Family Court, shall be: courtroomb.2cc@courts.hawaii.gov.

Family Court attorneys and pro se litigations to scan their documents and drop the document into the COURT DOCUMENT DROP OFF on the JEFS Portal, instead of walking into the building with hard copies. This will also help the JEFS users, attorneys and pro se litigants, get into the practice of using JEFS system when Family Court goes live with the JIMS Family Court module. This COURT DOCUMENT DROP OFF feature however is not available for FC-J and FC-S filings.

4. Matters that were continued until after April 30, 2020 pursuant to the above mentioned Emergency Orders shall be further postponed until after May 29, 2020, except as otherwise ordered herein.
5. Domestic Division (FC-D cases). All matters other than trials and extended hearings shall remain on calendar as scheduled and shall be conducted by video or telephonic conferencing. These matters include but are not limited to the following: pre-decree and post-decree divorce matters, motions to set, return hearing on custody evaluator or best interest fact finder reports, and other divorce matters.
6. Special Division (FC-DA; FC-P; FC-M; FC-G; FC-A; UCCJEA; UIFS cases)
  - a. Temporary Restraining Orders (“TRO”) and Gun Violence Protective Orders (“GVPO”) hearings and trial shall continue to be heard as scheduled and all parties and counsel may appear in-person at the courthouse for the hearing and/or trial, but shall practice social distancing requirements.
  - b. All non-trial matters shall remain on calendar as scheduled and shall be conducted by telephonic or video conferencing available (i.e., CISCO Webex).
