

Serving Your Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) Ahkfahsryeyacn Pusren Akwuck (TRO) Lom

Your TRO will not take effect until it is granted and filed by the court. In addition, the TRO is not enforceable until it is properly served upon the respondent. Once the TRO is granted and filed, it is your responsibility to ensure that the documents are provided to the police department for proper service upon the respondent. Please take these steps if the respondent resides on the same island:

- In the event the respondent resides on another island or outside the State of Hawai'i, you will need to contact law enforcement in that locale to personally serve the TRO documents on the respondent. You will then need to make sure that the proof of service document has been filed with the court after the respondent has been served.
