1. Kauikeaouli Hale (i.e., the Honolulu District Court), the Kāne`ohe District Court, the `Ewa District Court, the Wahiawā District Court, and the Wai`anae District Court are open to the public. However, all parties, attorneys, and other persons that may appear in person shall wear an appropriate face covering as described and recommended by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, unless exempt, and shall maintain appropriate social distancing of at least six feet while visiting judiciary facilities (both inside and outside the courtroom). Further, Court participants shall not enter the First Circuit Judiciary facilities if they have: (i) a fever, cough, shortness of breath, or other symptoms of respiratory illness; (ii) traveled outside of Hawai`i in the past 14 days; (iii) traveled inter-island prior to June 16, 2020, for the duration of their self-quarantine period, as mandated by Governor David Y. Ige's Ninth Supplementary Proclamation; or (iv) had close prolonged contact with a person who has or is suspected to have COVID-19.

2. The Information Booth at the Honolulu District Court shall continue to provide services to the public. The Information Booth is located on the plaza, outside the entrance to the courthouse. Due to its location, the public may obtain services there without standing in the lines designated for security screening, the escalators, and/or the elevators.

Court Proceedings Continue to Expand in Phases

8. Throughout the COVID-19 outbreak, the Honolulu District Court remained open for essential in-court proceedings. These proceedings included:

- a. Criminal felony cases;
- b. Criminal misdemeanor and petty misdemeanor cases involving defendants in the custody of the Oahu Community Correctional Center (OCCC), the Hawai`i State Hospital (HSH), and/or the Honolulu Police Department (HPD);

9. To the extent possible, video conferencing shall continue to be used for cases involving defendants currently in the custody of HPD, OCCC, and/or HSH.

Criminal misdemeanor, criminal petty misdemeanor, traffic misdemeanor, and traffic petty misdemeanor cases involving defendants who are not in the custody of OCCC, HSH, and/or HPD (i.e., non-custody cases)

10. Temporary procedure for requests for remote pretrial conferences. Due to COVID-19, thousands of cases have been rescheduled since March 16, 2020. To provide parties in criminal and criminal traffic cases with an opportunity to address as many cases as possible before in-person hearings resume, to assist attorneys in streamlining their court appearances by having multiple cases set on the same date and time, and to address the backlog, parties may file ex parte motions to set remote pretrial conferences. Remote pretrial conferences are available for change of plea (including global change of plea in multiple courthouses), waiver or demand of jury trial, proof of compliance hearings, and arraignment and plea.

Between June 29, 2020, and July 17, 2020, these pretrial conferences will generally be scheduled on the following dates and times, subject to availability:

Monday: Defendants with cases in multiple courthouses
Tuesday morning: Kāne`ohe cases
Tuesday afternoon: `Ewa cases
Wednesday: Honolulu cases
Thursday morning: Wahiawā cases
Thursday afternoon: Wai`anae cases
Friday: Defendants with cases in multiple courthouses

Until July 10, 2020 only, attorneys may e-mail a copy of their ex parte motions to set pretrial conferences directly to the Deputy Chief Judge with a copy to opposing counsel to expedite the review and processing of these motions.

After 11:59 a.m. on July 10, 2020, attorneys shall not e-mail ex parte motions to set pretrial conferences directly to the Deputy Chief Judge. If such ex parte motions are e-mailed to the Deputy Chief Judge after 11:59 a.m. on July 10, 2020, they will be disregarded. Ex parte motions to set pretrial conferences filed after 11:59 a.m. on July 10, 2020 will be reviewed by the presiding judge(s) at the corresponding court(s).

11. Arraignment and plea. Arraignment and plea shall resume on the following dates at the following courthouses:

Tuesday, July 7, 2020: Honolulu District Court (Kauikeaouli Hale)
Monday, July 13, 2020: `Ewa District Court

Monday, July 13, 2020: Wai`anae District Court

Tuesday, July 14, 2020: Kāne`ohe District Court

Tuesday, July 14, 2020: Wahiawā District Court

12. Staggered appearance times. In light of COVID-19 and to facilitate social distancing, appearance times for arraignment and plea, status hearings (including status hearings regarding a demand or waiver of jury trial), proof of compliance hearings, and pretrial conferences shall be staggered throughout the day. Appearance times will be set every 30 minutes, with fewer cases scheduled during each 30-minute interval. Parties and attorneys must be on time. Parties and attorneys are advised to plan accordingly.

13. Remote appearances for arraignment and plea, status hearings, proof of compliance hearings, and pretrial conferences. District Court is developing a process to make remote appearances available for arraignment and plea, status hearings (including status hearings regarding a demand or waiver of jury trial), proof of compliance hearings, and pretrial conferences. In the interim, a party or attorney requesting a remote appearance may file an ex parte motion for remote hearing. Upon approval of the motion, the date, time, and remote hearing information will be provided by the Court. In the event the presiding judge in his or her sole discretion determines that a case is not suitable for a remote hearing, the presiding judge may require the parties and their counsel to appear in person.

In cases where remote appearances are available, District Court is currently utilizing Zoom. Instructions on “How to Join a Court Remote Hearing Using Zoom” are available at:

https://www.courts.state.hi.us/wp-content/uploads/2020/06/How-to-Log-Onto-Zoom-Guide5-28-2020_final.pdf

Additional information is also available on the Judiciary’s website at:

<https://www.courts.state.hi.us/remote-court-hearings-via-zoom-or-webex>

14. Enforcement of court rules. In light of COVID-19, social distancing requirements, and the resulting scheduling restrictions, the Court will be strictly enforcing court rules, particularly with respect to requests for trial continuances, discovery disclosure and requests for additional discovery in criminal cases.

All parties are expected to strictly comply with the Hawai'i Rules of Penal Procedure, the Rules of the District Courts of the State of Hawai'i, and the deadlines contained therein. If a case is set for trial, both parties must be present with all of their witnesses on the designated date and time. Motions to continue trial must be filed in accordance with Rule 33(c) of the Rules of the District Court.

Unless a written order continuing the trial is filed, parties shall appear for trial on the designated date and time. Parties should not assume that a continuance will be granted and should not "call off" their witnesses until and unless a written order is filed. Failure to comply with court rules and deadlines may result in sanctions.

15. Expanded use of status conference and pretrial conferences. In light of COVID-19 and social distancing requirements, presiding judges may set status conferences and/or pretrial conferences to encourage plea negotiations prior to trial, address issues that must be resolved prior to trial, and manage the docket. Status and/or pretrial conferences may also be used to confirm that the parties and their respective witnesses are available for trial on their assigned trial dates.

16. Trials and evidentiary hearings.

a. All trials and evidentiary hearings that commenced on or before March 16, 2020 (i.e., all further trials and further hearings) will resume beginning on July 1, 2020. The Court will contact the attorneys before the further trial or hearing to confirm that both parties and their witnesses are available for trial on the assigned date, at the assigned time, and in the assigned courtroom. If one or both parties are not available for trial on the assigned date, at the assigned time, and in the assigned courtroom, a pretrial conference will be set to address any continuances.

b. Trials and evidentiary hearings in all other criminal and criminal traffic cases shall resume on the following dates at the following courthouses:

Tuesday, August 4, 2020: Honolulu District Court (Kauikeaouli Hale)

Tuesday, August 4, 2020: `Ewa District Court

Tuesday, August 4, 2020: Kāne`ohe District Court

Thursday, August 6, 2020: Wai`anae District Court

Thursday, August 6, 2020: Wahiawā District Court

17. Trial dates, times, and courtrooms. In light of COVID-19, trial dates and appearance times may need to be staggered to facilitate social distancing. In setting and/or confirming trial dates, presiding judges and court staff should consider the size of the designated trial courtroom. If a trial date is set, the parties must confirm that their witnesses are available for trial on the assigned date, at the assigned time, and in the assigned courtroom. Parties, attorneys, and witnesses must be on time for trial. Failure to timely appear may result in sanctions. Parties and attorneys are advised to plan accordingly.

18. Referral to the Office of the Public Defender for legal representation in criminal cases. Individuals with pending arraignment dates in criminal misdemeanor, criminal petty misdemeanor, traffic misdemeanor, and traffic petty misdemeanor cases who cannot afford to hire an attorney may contact the Office of the Public Defender for possible legal representation prior to their court dates. Individuals will still need to go through a qualification process based on their financial situation to qualify for services. Intake appointments are currently available by telephone only.

Hours: Monday through Friday, 7:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Telephone: (808) 586-2100

Cost: Free

a. As set forth in that order, the civil calendars at the Kāne`ohe District Court, the `Ewa District Court, the Wahiawā District Court, and the Wai`anae District Court shall resume during the week of July 6-10, 2020. To the extent possible, remote hearings shall be utilized.

b. In addition, the small claims calendar at the Honolulu District Court shall resume on July 6, 2020. To the extent possible, remote hearings shall be utilized.

25. Summary possession and ejectment cases. There shall be no civil pretrial conferences, court-mandated settlement conferences, returnables, motions, hearings, trials or other court proceedings in cases “to terminate any tenancy for a residential dwelling unit, for failure to pay all or any portion of the rent, maintenance fees, utility charges, taxes or other fees required for the residential dwelling unit” as set forth in Governor David Y. Ige’s Ninth Supplementary Proclamation Related to COVID-19 Emergency (dated June 10, 2020 and effective through July 31, 2020).

In the event a case currently set on the returnable calendar seeks “to terminate any tenancy for a residential dwelling unit, for failure to pay all or any portion of the rent, maintenance fees, utility charges, taxes, or other fees” as set forth in Governor David Y. Ige’s Ninth Supplementary Proclamation Related to the COVID-19 Emergency (dated June 10, 2020), the presiding judge shall (i) reschedule the returnable hearing to a date after July 31, 2020, if the Complaint was filed on or before April 16, 2020, (i.e., prior to the effective date of Governor David Y. Ige’s Fifth Supplementary Proclamation Related to the COVID-19 Emergency dated April 16, 2020), or (ii) dismiss the case if the Complaint was filed on or after April 17, 2020.

b. Written answers in lieu of in-court appearances. When possible, parties are encouraged to submit written answers in lieu of in-court appearances. Written answers must be served on all parties and filed within the time periods set forth in the District Court Rules of Civil Procedure.
