

THE JUDICIARY, STATE OF HAWAII
NOTICE OF REQUEST FOR EXEMPTION
FROM HRS CHAPTER 103D

TO: Chief Procurement Officer
 FROM: Office of the Chief Court Administrator, First Circuit

Name of Requesting Division/Program

Pursuant to HRS § 103D -102 (b)(4) and HAR Chapter 3-120, The Judiciary requests a procurement exemption for the following:

1. Describe the goods, services or construction: To provide Certified Court Management training courses, designed to provide employees with an expansive understanding of court operations and the tools to both recognize and implement national best practices to better support the mission of the Judiciary. Purchase of Modules 4 to 6; the final three (3) courses of the six course sequence.
6. Explain in detail why it is not practicable or not advantageous for the Program/Division to procure by competitive means: The National Center for State Courts (NCSC) is the sole provider of educational courses for the Court Management Program. Participants that complete the program receive a nationally recognized certification as a certified court manager (CCM). The Institute for Court Management (ICM), which offers the CCM certification, is a division of NCSC and presents a wide range of professional development opportunities to judges, court executives, administrators, managers and court staff. In addition, ICM creates courses with an interactive, adaptive, and personalized learning approach using the most current instructional design and technology delivery methods. In light of their qualifications, proven record of quality educational courses, and a more than satisfactory provision of services for the Hawaii Judiciary, it is not practicable or advantageous to procure by competitive means.
7. Explain in detail, the process that will be or was utilized in selecting the vendor/contractor/service provider: The NCSC serves as the information clearinghouse for our nation's state courts and provides the latest research and data on court operations at all levels. ICM is the premier judicial branch education organization, universally recognized for quality curricula and customer service. Courses align with established core competencies and reflect what court managers need to know and be able to do to address today's challenges in the courts. NCSC and its ICM division are both highly experienced and previous courses provided by the NCSC and ICM have resulted in positive outcomes for the Judiciary.
