IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF HAWAI‘I

In the Matter of the Judiciary’s Response to the COVID-19 Outbreak

ORDER REGARDING TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF THE TIME REQUIREMENTS
UNDER HAWAI‘I RULES OF PENAL PROCEDURE RULE 5(c) (3)
(THIRD CIRCUIT)

(By: Recktenwald, C.J., Nakayama, McKenna, and Eddins, JJ., and Wilson, J., dissenting¹)

The COVID-19 pandemic has caused a public health emergency. In response to the declared state of emergency, the Judiciary postponed non-urgent court business and limited in-person proceedings in an effort to ensure the health and safety of court users and Judiciary personnel, and to minimize the risk

The Dissent was filed on February 18, 2021, in SCPW-20-0000509. of spreading COVID-19 in the courts. As COVID-19 cases remained low, court operations resumed in accordance with public health safety guidance, and to the extent possible with available resources. Criminal proceedings have proceeded in-person and by video conference in accordance with court rules and as feasible.

In late May 2021, there was an increase in COVID-19 positive cases being reported at the Hawai'i Community Correctional Center ("HCCC"). As a result, HCCC was in lockdown and the transport of custody defendants was suspended. In recent weeks, statewide infection and hospitalization rates have surged, with record numbers of positive cases and rapidly increasing hospitalizations being reported. Additionally, HCCC currently remains in lockdown with no transports occurring.

Health and safety continue to be paramount during this unprecedented time. The current trajectory of the pandemic and its impact on our community require continued flexibility and vigilance in adapting to these extraordinary circumstances, and the continued need to protect court users and Judiciary personnel during this unprecedented time remains vital. Under the current circumstances, a temporary suspension of the time requirements set forth under HRPP Rule 5(c)(3)² for Third Circuit criminal matters is necessary.

Accordingly, pursuant to article VI, section 7 of the Hawai'i Constitution and Hawai'i Revised Statutes §§ 601-1.5 and 602-5(a)(6), and Governor David Y. Ige's Emergency Proclamations,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Third Circuit may temporarily extend the time requirements for preliminary hearings, as set forth under HRPP Rule 5(c)(3), no longer than reasonably necessary to protect public health and safety. Judges, however, are strongly encouraged to follow the time requirements and provisions set forth under HRPP Rule 5(c)(3) to the extent possible, and utilize remote technology as feasible.

² HRPP Rule 5(c)(3) provides the following time requirements for a preliminary hearing:

The court shall conduct the preliminary hearing within 30 days of initial appearance if the defendant is not in custody; however, if the defendant is held in custody for a period of more than 2 days after initial appearance without commencement of a defendant's preliminary hearing, the court, on motion of the defendant, shall release the defendant to appear on the defendant's own recognizance, unless failure of such determination or commencement is caused by the request, action or condition of the defendant, or occurred with the defendant's consent, or is attributable to such compelling fact or circumstance which would preclude such determination or commencement within the prescribed period, or unless such compelling fact or circumstance would render such release to be against the interest of justice.

This order is effective as of the date of filing and shall expire on October 4, 2021, unless otherwise modified or extended.

Dated: Honolulu, Hawai'i, August 19, 2021.
