EIGHTEENTH AMENDED EMERGENCY ORDER #5
REGARDING DISTRICT COURT OF THE FIRST CIRCUIT

This matter comes before the Court in light of the public health emergency in the State of Hawai'i.

In light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the First Circuit Courts will continue to conduct remote proceedings while also maintaining precautions to minimize the number of people congregating in Judiciary facilities.

To further protect the health and safety of First Circuit District Court employees and all court participants, and pursuant to the Orders of Chief Justice Mark E. Recktenwald in

SCMF No. 20-0000152, In re the Judiciary's Response to the COVID-19 Outbreak, and with authority as Chief Judge of the First Circuit, the Court hereby orders as follows:

I. CRIMINAL AND CRIMINAL TRAFFIC CASES

A. Specified criminal and criminal traffic proceedings to proceed as scheduled

The following cases shall proceed as scheduled:

1. Initial appearances and preliminary hearings in felony cases;
2. Arraignment and plea for defendants in the custody of the Honolulu Police Department and/or the Hawai'i Department of Public Safety;
3. Motions for release, motions pertaining to bail, motions to revoke conditional release, and motions to revoke probation; and
4. Hearings on the mental health calendar under Hawai'i Revised Statutes (Haw. Rev. Stat.) Chapter 704 on (1) motions for temporary hospitalization; (2) motions to revoke conditional release; and (3) hearings deemed essential by the presiding judge; and
5. Trials for defendants in the custody of the Hawai'i Department of Public Safety and/or the Hawai'i State Hospital.

To the extent possible, video conferencing shall be used for cases involving defendants in the custody of the Honolulu Police Department, the Hawai'i Department of Public Safety, and/or the Hawai'i State Hospital.

B. Arraignment and plea: Honolulu District Court only

1. Remote arraignments and pleas for non-custody cases. Except as provided in section I.A. and section I.B.2., arraignments and pleas in non-custody criminal and criminal traffic matters at the Honolulu District Court shall be remotely heard by Zoom to the extent possible, unless otherwise ordered by the presiding judge. Failure to appear or timely request an in-person hearing as described below may result in a bench warrant.

2. In-person arraignments and pleas for non-custody cases. A defendant may file a motion for an in-person arraignment and plea. If the motion is granted, arraignment and plea will be conducted on the date, time, and courtroom specified in the order.

C. Arraignment and plea: ‘Ewa, Kāne‘ohe, Wahiawā, and Wai‘anae District Courts

Beginning on March 1, 2022, arraignments and pleas in non-custody criminal and criminal traffic matters at the ‘Ewa, Kāne‘ohe, Wahiawā, and Wai‘anae District Courts may be conducted in person or remotely, without prior court approval. Parties are encouraged to appear remotely via Zoom if possible. Failure to appear may result in a bench warrant.

D. Pretrial conferences and motions: All District Courts

1. Attorney-client communications. Attorneys shall consult with their respective clients prior to scheduled pretrial conferences as part of their professional obligation to ensure effective representation.

2. Remote pretrial conferences and motions. Beginning on March 1, 2022, all non-evidentiary criminal and criminal traffic matters (e.g., pretrial conferences, sentencing, status hearings, compliance hearings, motions to compel, motions to quash, motions for protective order, and other non-evidentiary matters) may be conducted in person or remotely, unless otherwise ordered by the presiding judge. Parties are encouraged to appear via Zoom if possible. Failure to appear may result in a bench warrant.

E. *Trials: All District Courts

Trials, motions to suppress, and other evidentiary motions in criminal and criminal traffic cases shall proceed as scheduled.

II. *TRAFFIC AND OTHER INFRACTION PROCEEDINGS

A. *Traffic and other infraction hearings: Honolulu District Court only

1. Remote hearings. Traffic and other infraction hearings under Haw. Rev. Stat. § 291D-8 in the Honolulu District Court shall be remotely heard by Zoom to the extent possible, unless otherwise ordered by the presiding judge.

2. In-person hearings. If a defendant is unable to appear via Zoom, the defendant may file a motion for an in-person hearing. If the motion is granted, the hearing will be conducted on the date, time, and courtroom specified in the order. Failure to appear or timely request an in-person hearing may result in a default judgment.

B. *Traffic and other infraction hearings: ‘Ewa, Kāne‘ohe, Wahiawā, and Wai‘anae District Courts

Beginning on March 1, 2022, traffic and other infraction hearings under Haw. Rev. Stat. § 291D-8 at the ‘Ewa, Kāne‘ohe, Wahiawā, and Wai‘anae District Courts may be conducted in person or remotely, without prior court approval. Parties are encouraged to appear remotely via Zoom if possible. Failure to appear may result in a default judgment.

C. *Trials: All District Courts

Traffic and other infraction trials under Haw. Rev. Stat. § 291D-13 (trial de novo) shall proceed as scheduled.

III. SPECIALITY COURTS

A. DWI Court

DWI Court shall proceed as scheduled. DWI Court participants may appear in person or remotely by Zoom, at the discretion of the Deputy Chief Judge of the District Court, First Circuit, or the presiding judge.

B. Community Outreach Court

Community Outreach Court shall proceed as scheduled. Community Outreach Court participants may appear in person or remotely by Zoom, at the discretion of the Deputy Chief Judge of the District Court, First Circuit, or the presiding judge. To the extent possible, Community Outreach Court should be held at community-based locations, with the presiding judge and court staff onsite at such locations. Social distancing and mask protocols shall be followed at community-based locations. Furthermore, attorneys, parties, and court observers shall comply with any additional directions of the presiding judge, bailiff, and court staff.

IV. CIVIL CASES

A. Temporary restraining orders and injunctions

Cases involving (a) temporary restraining orders (TROs) and injunctions under Haw. Rev. Stat. § 604-10.5, and (b) cases involving TROs and injunctions based on illegal lockouts and utility shutoffs shall proceed as scheduled. Failure to appear may result in default or dismissal.

B. Summary possession and ejectment cases

1. Returnable hearings. Beginning on March 1, 2022, cases on the returnable calendar may be conducted in person or remotely, without prior court approval.

Parties are encouraged to appear remotely via Zoom if possible. Failure to appear may result in default or dismissal.

2. Pretrial and status conferences. Beginning on March 1, 2022, pretrial and status conferences may be conducted in person or remotely, without prior court approval. Parties are encouraged to appear remotely via Zoom if possible. Failure to appear may result in default or dismissal.

The pilot project is subject to change by the SCLL.

D. Entry Into Judiciary Facilities

As set forth in SCMF-20-0000152, In the Matter of the Judiciary’s Response to the COVID-19 Outbreak, Sixth Amended Order Regarding Entering Judiciary Facilities (filed January 4, 2022), no one shall enter Judiciary facilities in the First Circuit if they: (i) have a fever or chills, cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, or other symptoms of respiratory illness or of COVID-19 as set forth by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (“CDC”), except where the Department of Health (“DOH”) has advised that quarantine is not necessary; (ii) have tested positive for COVID-19 and have not been cleared to end isolation by their healthcare provider or DOH’s general isolation and quarantine policy, in absence of any specific guidance provided by the DOH; (iii) have had close contact with a person who has or is suspected to have COVID-19, except where (a) the individual is boosted and remains asymptomatic; or (b) the individual is fully vaccinated within six months of entry (or within two months of entry if the individual received the Johnson & Johnson vaccine) and remains asymptomatic; or (c) the individual, who is neither boosted nor fully vaccinated, is beyond five days since exposure and remains asymptomatic; or (iv) have traveled outside of Hawai‘i in the past five (5) days and have not either (a) satisfied the State’s Safe Travels program’s negative test exception to the mandatory self-quarantine period for Trans-Pacific travel and any applicable post-arrival test requirements, or (b) satisfied the State’s Safe Travels program’s requirements for Trans-Pacific travel regarding completion of a vaccination regimen approved by the DOH, as specified by the Director of the Hawai‘i Emergency Management Agency (posted at <http://hawaiiicovid19.com/>), subject to any subsequent travel restrictions imposed through Statewide or County emergency orders, rules, or proclamations.

Furthermore, all individuals (including employees) at Kauikeaouli Hale (Honolulu District Court), the ‘Ewa District Court, the Kāne‘ohe District Court, the Wahiawā District Court, and the Wai‘anae District Court (collectively, “District Court Facilities”), shall wear cloth or disposable masks with a proper fit over the nose and mouth as described and recommended by the CDC (posted at <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/prevent-getting-sick/types-of-masks.html>) from the time they enter District Court Facilities, while moving through common areas in each of these facilities (including, but not limited to, hallways, stairwells, elevators, escalators, restrooms, waiting areas, copy rooms, break rooms, conference rooms, and file areas), and in the presence of others. Masks shall also be worn when individuals (including employees) are at their personal workspaces (including, but not limited to, courtroom benches, courtroom desks, offices, cubicles, employee work stations, and employee desks), even in situations where social distancing is observed, unless they are separated from others by walls extending from the floor to the ceiling. Masks may be temporarily removed by employees when employees are actively eating and/or drinking. Masks may also be removed by employees when they are isolated in a workspace and are separated from others by walls extending from the floor to the ceiling.

Individuals (other than employees) with breathing issues or other medical conditions where the wearing of a mask may pose a health or safety risk to that individual may request an exemption from the Chief Judge, the Chief Court Administrator, or their designees. Employees with breathing issues or other medical conditions where the wearing of a mask may pose a health or safety risk to that individual may request an exemption from their respective supervisors, who shall consult with the respective Chief Court Administrator, Deputy Chief Court Administrator, or Department Head.

In addition to wearing masks, all individuals at District Court Facilities shall maintain appropriate social distancing of at least six feet (both inside and outside the courtroom), to the extent possible.

E. *Additional Entry Requirements for Attorneys and their Staff

As set forth in SCMF-20-0000152, In the Matter of the Judiciary's Response to the COVID-19 Outbreak, First Amended Order Regarding Requirements for Attorneys Entering Judiciary Facilities (filed January 4, 2022), before entering Judiciary facilities to attend court hearings and conferences, or conduct other official court business, all attorneys permitted to practice law in all courts of the State of Hawai‘i, including attorneys admitted pro hac vice, as well as paralegals, investigators, information technology specialists and any other individuals assisting the attorney in court, shall (a) verify full vaccination against COVID-19, or (b) supply proof of a negative COVID-19 test result from a test taken no more than seven days before entering the Judiciary facility.

F. Additional orders

The Deputy Chief Judge of the District Court, First Circuit, may issue additional orders and adjust court operations consistent with this Order and the Orders of Chief Justice Mark E. Recktenwald filed in SCMF No. 20-0000152, In re the Judiciary’s Response to the COVID-19 Outbreak.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: Honolulu, Hawai‘i, February 25, 2022.
