CONTENTS OF REPORT, HRS §§704-404(3), (5), (6), (7), (9); 704-406(3)
The examiner(s)' report shall include the following:

1. A description of the nature of the examination.

E.

- 2. A diagnosis of the physical or mental condition of Defendant at the present time.
- 3. An opinion as to Defendant's fitness to proceed, i.e., Defendant's capacity to understand the proceedings against Defendant and to assist in Defendant's own defense. If the opinion of the examiner is that Defendant lacks the capacity to understand the proceedings against Defendant and/or assist in Defendant's own defense is impaired:
 - a. An opinion as to whether there is a substantial likelihood that Defendant will acquire the capacity to understand the proceedings against Defendant and/or to assist in Defendant's own defense within a reasonable period of time. If so, provide an estimate of the reasonable period of time. HRS §704-406(3).

- 4. If it is the opinion of the examiner that Defendant is not fit to proceed and that there is not a substantial likelihood that Defendant will become fit within a reasonable period of time, the examiner shall advise the Court on the following questions, as applicable:
 - a. Is the Defendant mentally ill and/or suffering from a substance abuse condition?
 - b. Is the Defendant imminently dangerous to self or others, gravely disabled, or obviously ill?
 - c. Is the Defendant in need of care or treatment, or both? If so, are there suitable alternatives available through existing facilities and programs that would be less restrictive than hospitalization?
- 5. A statement that the diagnosis and opinion rendered were arrived at independently of other examiners, unless there is a showing of a clear need for communication between or among the examiners for clarification. A description of the communication shall be included in the report.
- 6. If the re-examination cannot be conducted by reason of the unwillingness of Defendant to participate therein, the report shall so state and shall include, if possible, an opinion as to whether Defendant's unwillingness was the result of physical or mental disease, disorder, or defect. If it is not possible to make such a determination, the report shall expressly state that it is not possible to determine whether the Defendant's unwillingness is the result of physical or mental disease, disorder, or defect.
- 7. If the Defendant persists in refusing to participate in an examination, and the examiner cannot determine whether the Defendant's unwillingness to participate is the result of physical or mental disease, disorder, or defect, the examiner shall render an opinion as to the Defendant's fitness to proceed based on the medical, mental health, social, police, juvenile, and other pertinent records available to the examiner.
- 8. Any examiner shall be permitted to make a separate explanation reasonably serving to clarify the examiner's diagnosis or opinion.
