Rule 8. JUDICIAL DISCIPLINE.

8.2. Jurisdiction and Powers of Commission.

(a) Powers in General. The Commission shall have the power to:

- (1) receive information, allegations, and complaints;
- (2) make preliminary evaluations;
- (3) screen complaints;
- (4) conduct investigations;
- (5) conduct hearings;
- (6) recommend dispositions to the supreme court concerning allegations of judicial misconduct or physical or mental disability of judges; ~~and~~

- (7) issue advisory opinions[-]; and
- (8) utilize an administrator.

(b) Persons Subject to Discipline. The conduct of any justice or judge, full-time or part-time, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, regardless of the justice's or judge's status at the time the conduct is reported to the Commission, including, but not limited to, having resigned or retired from office and provided the conduct is reported to the Commission no later than ninety (90) days after the judge leaves office.

(c) Jurisdiction of Commission.

(1) Notwithstanding any provisions of Rule 2.1 of the Rules of the Supreme Court, only this Commission shall have the authority to exercise powers specified in Rule 8.2 with respect to conduct, whether or not related to mental or physical competence, of any sitting full-time or part-time justice or judge occurring during the time of, and prior to, [~~his or her~~] their tenure on the bench except as otherwise provided in this subsection (c).

(2) Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained herein regarding the jurisdiction of the Commission:

(i) The Disciplinary Board of the Hawai'i Supreme Court may conclude any formal disciplinary proceedings as to said conduct which occurred prior to the judicial tenure of any full-time or part-time justice or judge, and any petition to the supreme court to determine whether any justice or judge is incapacitated from continuing the practice of law by reason of physical infirmity or illness or because of the use of drugs or intoxicants, if such formal disciplinary proceedings were initiated or such petition was filed prior to the judicial tenure of the justice or judge.

(ii) If a sitting part-time district judge is practicing law as an attorney, the Disciplinary Board of the Hawai'i Supreme Court shall have jurisdiction of such judge with respect to said conduct as an attorney and to petition the supreme court to determine whether such judge is incapacitated from continuing the practice of law by reason of physical infirmity or illness or because of the use of drugs or intoxicants and shall exercise the authority and powers prescribed under Rule 2 of the Rules of the Supreme Court.

(iii) The Disciplinary Board shall transmit its findings of fact, conclusions of law, disciplinary action or recommendations, and the entire record, in formal disciplinary proceedings under (i) and (ii) above to the Commission and if it is satisfied, and if it wishes to take action, the Commission may apply the same findings to support its recommendation for disciplinary action against a justice or judge involved in the said proceedings subject, however, to subsection (4) of this subsection (c).

(3) The resignation or retirement of any full-time or part-time justice or judge before or after the Commission or the Disciplinary Board, or both, have commenced an investigation or a proceeding, and before final action by the supreme court upon any recommendation, shall not deprive the Commission, the Disciplinary Board or the supreme court of jurisdiction.

(4) The Commission shall treat the findings of the Disciplinary Board made as a result of proceedings within (2)(i) or (2)(ii) above, as a new complaint which shall be reviewed in accordance with Rule 8.6, subsections (b) through (i), and if the Commission determines that further proceedings should be had, the Commission shall proceed with the complaint in accordance with Rule 8.7, and with any other applicable provisions of Rule 8.

(d) Administrator. There shall be an administrator to the Commission, whose duties and responsibilities shall be subject to the Commission's direction and supervision.

(1) The administrator shall be an attorney who is licensed to practice law in the State of Hawai'i, and who shall serve as attorney to the Commission. The administrator shall not be a person who is a sitting justice or judge, including part-time judge.

(2) The supreme court shall appoint the administrator. The appointment and removal of the administrator shall require the concurrence of the majority of the supreme court.

(3) The administrator shall not engage in the private practice of law; provided, the administrator may provide pro bono services consistent with Rule 6.1 of the Hawai'i Rules of Professional Conduct, subject to restrictions imposed by the Commission.

(d) Subpoena and Discovery.

(1) In matters before the Commission the chairperson or, if appointed pursuant to Rule 8.7 of this Rule, special counsel in matters under investigation by special counsel, may administer oaths and affirmations, compel by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses, including the judge as witness, and to provide for the inspection of documents, books, accounts, and other records.

A respondent judge may compel by subpoena the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents, books, accounts, and other records after formal disciplinary proceedings are initiated.

Writs of subpoena shall be issued in blank by the clerk of the supreme court upon application by any member of the Commission, special counsel or the respondent, subject to the demonstration of good cause required by Rule 8.2~~(d)~~(3) of this Rule.

(2) The power to enforce process may be delegated by the supreme court to any other court.

(3) There shall be no discovery proceedings except upon the order of the Commission chairperson for good cause shown.

(e) Rules of Procedure and Forms. The Commission shall have the authority to submit rules of procedure for the approval of the supreme court, and to develop appropriate forms for its proceedings.

8.3. Immunity.

Members of the Commission, the administrator or other staff providing assistance to the Commission, and special counsel appointed by the supreme court shall be absolutely immune from suit for all conduct in the course of their official duties.

8.6. Complaint Procedure.

(a) Initiation of Procedure.

(1) An inquiry relating to conduct of a judge may be initiated upon any reasonable basis, including written complaints made by judges, lawyers, court personnel, or members of the general public.

(2) The Commission may on its own motion make inquiry with respect to whether a judge is guilty of misconduct in office or is physically or mentally disabled.

(3) Upon request of the chief justice of the supreme court, the Commission shall make an investigation under this rule of the conduct or physical or mental condition of a judge.

(b) Privilege. A qualified privilege shall attach to a complaint submitted to the Commission or testimony related to the complaint, and any civil action predicated on such complaint initiated against any complainant or witness, or their counsel, shall be subject to said qualified privilege.

(c) Discretionary Notice. Notice that a complaint has been made may be given to the judge named in the complaint.

(d) Screening of Complaints. Upon receipt of a complaint, the Commission shall determine whether such complaint warrants investigation and evaluation. Complaints determined to be frivolous, unfounded or outside the jurisdiction of the Commission shall not be investigated.

(e) Mandatory Notice. After the determination that a complaint warrants investigation and evaluation, notice that a complaint has been made shall be given to the judge.

(f) Preliminary Investigation and Evaluation. Upon receipt of a complaint, report, or other information as to conduct that might constitute grounds for discipline, the Commission shall conduct a prompt, discreet, and confidential investigation and evaluation. The Commission may delegate one of its members, or the administrator, to conduct such investigation and evaluation.

(g) Determination. After conclusion of the investigation and evaluation, the Commission shall determine:

- (1) That there is insufficient cause to proceed against the judge; or
- (2) That there is sufficient information to make a disciplinary recommendation to the supreme court; or
- (3) That further proceedings regarding the complaint are necessary.

(h) Insufficient Cause to Proceed.

(1) Upon determination that there is insufficient cause to proceed, the file shall be closed. If previously notified of a complaint, a judge shall be notified that the file has been closed.

(2) A closed file may be referred to by the Commission in subsequent proceedings.

(3) If the inquiry was initiated as a result of notoriety or because of conduct that is a matter of public record, information concerning the lack of cause to proceed may be released by the Commission.

(i) Dispositions in Lieu of Further Proceedings. Even though the Commission does not find that further proceedings are necessary, it may recommend to the supreme court that the court:

- (1) Issue a private reprimand; or
- (2) Inform or admonish the judge that [~~his or her~~]their conduct is or may be cause for discipline; or
- (3) Direct professional counseling or assistance for the judge; or
- (4) Impose conditions on the judge's conduct.

8.7. Appointment of Special Counsel.

Upon determining that further proceedings should be had, the Commission shall request the supreme court to appoint special counsel to further investigate the matter. The supreme court, however, may also, upon receipt of the report from the Commission pursuant to Rule 8.6 of these Rules, review the record de novo and, in its discretion, appoint special counsel sua sponte. In either case,

Counsel, upon further investigation, shall either report to the Commission that a formal hearing is not necessary or shall initiate formal disciplinary proceedings as provided in Rule 8.9 of these Rules. The administrator may be appointed as special counsel. The Office of Disciplinary Counsel may be appointed as special counsel, subject to the approval of the chairperson of the Disciplinary Board.

It is hereby further ordered that Rule 15 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of the State of Hawai'i is amended effective as of January 1, 2026 as follows (deleted language is bracketed and stricken; amendments are underscored):

Rule 15. Judicial Financial Disclosure.

(a) Filing of annual financial disclosure statement. Every judge shall file in the supreme court clerk's office an annual financial disclosure statement on a form [~~approved by the supreme court~~] that substantially complies with Form 1 in the Appendix of Forms. The form may be completed and submitted electronically. This requirement applies to all full time and per diem judges, including justices of the supreme court, but does not apply to retired judges or justices called back for temporary service pursuant to Article VI, Section 2 of the State Constitution.

(b) Time for filing. The financial disclosure statement shall be filed on or before April 30 and shall cover the preceding calendar year or that portion of the year during which the judge held office.

(1) EXTENSIONS OF TIME. A judge may apply to the chief clerk of the supreme court for an extension of time to file the financial disclosure statement. An application for extension shall be submitted prior to the deadline for filing the statement. Upon receipt of the request, the clerk shall grant one extension of time to May 30. The clerk shall note on the record that the extension was granted.

(2) MONITORING BY CHIEF CLERK. The chief clerk of the supreme court shall make reasonable efforts to monitor the filing of statements under this rule. If a judge has defaulted, filed a late statement, or filed an obviously incomplete statement, the clerk shall promptly notify the judge in writing and shall transmit a copy of the notice to the Commission on Judicial Conduct. The failure of the clerk to give such notice shall not excuse a judge's failure to comply with this rule.

(c) Imposition of discipline for untimely or incomplete statements. A judge who fails to file a timely statement, or who files an incomplete statement, may be subject to discipline pursuant to the procedures set out in Rule 8 of the rules of this court. If [~~however~~] the Commission on Judicial Conduct determines that any default or deficiency was inadvertent or in good faith and that the default or deficiency was promptly corrected by the judge after being called to the judge's attention, the Commission, pursuant to Rule 8.6(g)(1), may decline to proceed against the judge.

(d) Matters to be disclosed. The statement shall include disclosure of the financial interests of the judge and the judge's spouse or domestic partner and any dependent children. Disclosure shall be made of the following types of interests:

(1) The source and amount of all income of $1,000 or more received, for services rendered, by the judge, the judge's spouse or domestic partner, or the judge's dependent children or by any other person for use or benefit of the judge, the judge's spouse or domestic partner, or the judge's dependent children during the preceding calendar year and the nature of the services rendered; provided that information that may be privileged by law or individual items of compensation that constitute a portion of the gross income of the business or profession from which the person derives income need not be disclosed.

(2) The amount and identity of every ownership or beneficial interest held during the disclosure period in any business incorporated, regulated, or licensed to carry on business in the State that has a value of $5,000 or more or that is equal to 10 percent of the ownership of the business and, if the interest was transferred during the disclosure period, the date of the transfer; provided that an interest in the form of an account in a federal or state regulated financial institution, an interest in the form of a policy in a mutual insurance company, or individual items in a mutual fund or a blind trust, if the mutual fund or blind trust has been disclosed pursuant to this paragraph, need not be disclosed. For purposes of this rule, judges do not need to disclose interests held in the Employees' Retirement System of the State of Hawai'i or other government pension plans.

(3) Every officership, directorship, trusteeship, or other fiduciary relationship held in a business, including a nonprofit entity, during the disclosure period, the term of office and the annual compensation.

(4) The name of each creditor to whom the value of $3,000 or more was owed during the disclosure period, the original amount owed, and the amount outstanding; provided that credit card debt need not be disclosed unless the balance owed exceeded $10,000 for 6 months or longer during the reporting period.

(5) The postal zip code for the location and the value of any real property in the State in which the person holds an interest valued at $10,000 or more, and, if the interest was transferred or obtained during the disclosure period, a statement of the amount and nature of the consideration received or paid in exchange for such interest, and the name of the person furnishing or receiving the consideration.

(6) The amount and identity of every creditor interest in an insolvent business held during the disclosure period having a value of $5,000 or more.

(7) Gifts ~~[not excluded by Rule 3.13(e)]~~ and reimbursements to the judge that must be reported under Rule 3.15(a)(2)-(3) of the Hawai'i Revised Code of Judicial Conduct.

(8) Full-time judges' hours of approved judicial education.

(e) Disclosure of amounts by range; number of stock shares. Where an amount is required to be disclosed, the person disclosing may indicate whether the amount is at least $1,000 but less than $10,000; at least $10,000 but less than $25,000; at least $25,000 but less than $50,000; at least $50,000 but less than $100,000; at least $100,000 but less than $150,000; at least $150,000 but less than $250,000; at least $250,000 but less than $500,000; at least $500,000 but less than $750,000; at least $750,000 but less than $1,000,000; or $1,000,000 or more. An amount of stock may be reported by number of shares.

(f) Short form statement. In odd-numbered years where there are no more than 10 amendments or changes in the information reported for the preceding disclosure period, a judge may comply with the requirements of subsection (a) of this rule by filing in the supreme court clerk's office an annual financial disclosure statement on a form that substantially complies with Form 2 in the Appendix of Forms. ~~[A short form financial disclosure statement approved by the supreme court may be used in odd-numbered years where there are no more than 10 amendments or changes in the information reported for the preceding disclosure period.]~~

(g) Statements open to public inspection. Financial disclosure statements filed pursuant to this rule shall be available for public inspection in the supreme court clerk's office during normal business hours. Each judge's most recent long form statement and subsequent short form statement, if any, shall be accessible through the Judiciary's public web site. The Clerk shall redact from each disclosure statement account numbers and personal information, if provided, that could be used to steal identity, stalk, or put the judge or the judge's family members in danger, including residential addresses and telephone numbers, and the business address of a spouse or domestic partner, or children.

(h) Filing of statement not to limit ethical responsibilities of a judge. The filing of a financial disclosure statement pursuant to this rule shall not limit any ethical responsibilities of a judge with respect to financial activities and judicial disqualification. This rule shall not be construed as limiting the ethical or legal responsibilities of a judge as set out in the Hawai'i Revised Code of Judicial Conduct, case law, statutes or any other rule of court.

It is hereby further ordered that the following forms attached hereto are adopted effective January 1, 2026 and shall be appended to the Rules of the Supreme Court of the State of Hawai'i as Forms 1-2: Financial Disclosure Statement (Form 1); and, Financial Disclosure Statement (Short Form) (Form 2).

A copy of this order shall be filed in SCMF-11-0000111, In the Matter of the Financial Disclosure Statement Form (JUD 101), and after the filing of said order, the clerk of the supreme court shall mark SCMF-11-0000111 as closed. On a going-forward basis, any future amendments to Form 1 or Form 2 should be filed in SCR-11-0000068, Rules of the Supreme Court of the State of
