Hawai'i Revised Statutes

section (§) 560:5-207. Duties of guardian.

- (a) Except as otherwise limited by the court, a guardian of a minor ward has the duties and responsibilities of a parent regarding the ward's support, care, education, health, and welfare. A guardian shall act at all times in the ward's best interest and exercise reasonable care, diligence, and prudence.
- (b) A guardian shall:
 - (1) Become or remain personally acquainted with the ward and maintain sufficient contact with the ward to know of the ward's capacities, limitations, needs, opportunities, and physical and mental health;
 - (2) Take reasonable care of the ward's personal effects and bring a protective proceeding if necessary to protect other property of the ward;
 - (3) Expend money of the ward that has been received by the guardian, for the ward's current needs for support, care, education, health, and welfare;
 - (4) Conserve any excess money of the ward for the ward's future needs; provided that if a conservator has been appointed for the estate of the ward, the guardian shall pay the money at least quarterly to the conservator to be conserved for the ward's future needs;
 - (5) Report the condition of the ward and account for money and other assets in the guardian's possession or subject to the guardian's control, as ordered by the court on application of any person interested in the ward's welfare or as required by court rule; and
 - (6) Inform the court of any change in the ward's custodial dwelling or address.

§ 560:5-208 Powers of guardian.

- (a) Except as otherwise limited by the court, a guardian of a minor ward has the powers of a parent regarding the ward's support, care, education, health, and welfare.
- (b) A guardian may:
 - (1) Apply for and receive money for the support of the ward otherwise payable to the ward's parent, guardian, or custodian under the terms of any statutory system of benefits or insurance or any private contract, devise, trust, conservatorship, or custodianship;

EXHIBIT A

- (2) If otherwise consistent with the terms of any order by a court of competent jurisdiction relating to custody of the ward, take custody of the ward and establish the ward's place of custodial dwelling; provided that a guardian may only establish or move the ward's custodial dwelling outside the State upon express authorization of the court;
 - (3) If a conservator for the estate of a ward has not been appointed with existing authority, commence a proceeding, including an administrative proceeding, or take other appropriate action to compel a person to support the ward or to pay money for the benefit of the ward;
 - (4) Consent to medical or other care, treatment, or service for the ward;
 - (5) Consent to the marriage of the ward; and
 - (6) If reasonable under all of the circumstances, delegate to the ward certain responsibilities for decisions affecting the ward's well-being.
- (c) The court may specifically authorize the guardian to consent to the adoption of the ward.

§ 560:5-209 Rights and immunities of guardian.

- (a) A guardian shall be entitled to such reasonable compensation from the ward's estate for services as guardian and to reimbursement for room, board, and clothing provided by the guardian to the ward, but only as is approved by the court.
- (b) A guardian is not:
 - (1) Legally obligated to use the guardian's personal funds for the ward's expenses;
 - (2) Unless otherwise provided in the contract, individually liable on a contract properly entered into in the guardian's representative capacity in the exercise of the duties and powers as guardian unless the guardian fails to reveal the guardian's capacity and the identity of the ward in the contract;
 - (3) Personally liable to a third person for acts of the ward solely by reason of the guardianship; and
 - (4) Personally liable for injury to the ward resulting from the negligence or act of a third person providing medical or other care, treatment, or service to the ward except to the extent that a parent would be liable under the circumstances.
