Upon consideration of Petitioner-Appellant Richard Rapozo's November 5, 2026 Letter and "Ex Parte Motion to Restrain Hawaii Paroling Authority from Further Overpunishment,"[1] filed self-represented, which we construe as a Motion for Reconsideration of our October 23, 2026 Summary Disposition Order, the papers in support, and the record in case numbers 1PR141000016 and 1PC000051915, Rapozo appears to assert that his maximum term of imprisonment expired on August 23, 1998, and that he should have been released upon its expiration. However, Rapozo has not shown points of law or fact that this court has overlooked or misapprehended that would entitle him to relief. See Hawaiʻi Rules of Appellate Procedure Rule 40(b).

Therefore, IT IS ORDERED that the Motion for Reconsideration is denied.
